Understanding Your Policy and its important terms and conditions

To properly understand the Policy's significant features, benefits and risks You need to carefully read:

- (a) about each of the available covers provided in Sections 1 to 3;
- (b) the rest of this "Introduction" section - this sets out how You apply for cover, the basis on which We insure You, the Duty of Disclosure You need to meet before We insure You, Our privacy information and Our dispute resolution procedures;
- (c) "Definitions" section - this sets out what We mean by certain words used in the Policy. These words begin with a capital letter throughout this document;

- (d) "Exclusions applicable to all Sections of the Policy " - this sets out the general exclusions and limits that apply to all covers and benefits;
- (e) "Conditions applicable to all Sections of the Policy" - this sets out certain general rights and obligations that You and We have. If You do not meet them We may be able to refuse to pay a claim;
- (f) "Other Information" section – this explains other important information in relation to Your duty of disclosure, privacy, renewals and dispute resolution;
- (g) the Schedule and any endorsements or other written changes to the cover with which We issue You – these contain specific details relevant to You and can affect the cover.

Applying for cover

When You apply for the Policy by completing Our Application We or Our representative will agree with You on things such as: the Period of Insurance; Your premium; what property You want to cover; the limits You want for certain covers (if optional); excesses that will apply to You or others and whether any standard terms need to be varied (this may be by way of an endorsement). These details are recorded in the Schedule We issue to You.

The base premium We charge varies according to Your risk profile (e.g where You live, the type of property being insured, amount of cover required, other persons insured and relevant claims history etc). In some cases discounts may apply if You meet certain criteria We set. You will also have to pay any compulsory government charges (e.g Stamp Duty and GST) and Fire Services Levy (where applicable) plus any additional charges of which We tell You.

This Policy sets out the cover with which We are able to provide You. You need to decide if the limits, type and level of cover are appropriate for You and will cover Your potential loss. If they are not, You may be underinsured and You may have to bear the part of any loss for which You are not covered. To avoid this, people should seek to set the Sum Insured for the relevant property being insured at its estimated replacement value, which means replacement with new equipment that is the same as, or will provide the same quality and technological standards as, Your insured property. See the definition of "Sum Insured" in each section of the Policy.

Cooling-off and cancellation rights

You have a cooling-off period and cancellation rights under the Policy (see " Conditions applicable to all Sections of the Policy " section for details).

Basis on which We insure You

We agree to insure You:

- * based on the information provided in Your Application and subject to payment of the required premium by the required date.
- * in accordance with the Policy terms and conditions – Your Policy is made up of Your Application, this Policy document, the Schedule and any written endorsements We issue to You. You should carefully read all of these as if they are one document and keep them in a safe place.

Section 1A - Material Damage (excluding breakdown)

Section 1B - Mechanical, Electrical and Electronic Breakdown

(NOTE: Section 1B applies to the property insured under each Schedule only if the Schedule states "Breakdown - Yes".)

This Section covers physical loss or Damage to the property described in the Schedule FROM WHATSOEVER CAUSE ARISING whilst the said property is anywhere in The Commonwealth of Australia (except as hereinafter provided)

The Compensation for Section 1

Our liability during any one Period of Insurance will not exceed:

1. in respect of each Insured Item the Sum Insured shown against it in the Schedule. In the event of a claim such Sums Insured will for the current Period of Insurance be reduced by the amount of the loss or Damage unless We consent upon payment of additional premium to reinstate such Sums Insured.
2. in respect of all loss or Damage the Total Sum Insured.

Sum Insured for Section 1

The Sum Insured for each and every Insured Item must be not less than the new replacement cost at the commencement of the current Period of Insurance which will mean the cost of replacement of the Insured Item by a new item of the same kind and capacity, including packing, freight and government charges.

Co-Insurance for Section 1

PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS CLAUSE IS AN AVERAGE CLAUSE PURSUANT TO SECTION 44 OF THE INSURANCE CONTRACTS ACT 1984. PLEASE READ THIS CLAUSE CAREFULLY AND IF YOU HAVE ANY DOUBTS OR QUERIES ABOUT ITS EFFECT PLEASE ASK FOR AN EXPLANATION.

If at the time of loss or Damage to any Insured Item under the Policy it is found that the Sum Insured is less than 90% of the New Replacement Cost (as defined under "Sum Insured" above), You will be considered as being Your own insurer for the proportion representing the difference between the New Replacement Cost and the Sum Insured and You will bear a proportionate share of the loss accordingly. If there is more than one Insured Item, every Item described in the Schedule will be separately subject to this provision.

Basis of Indemnity for Section 1

Where Damage to an Insured Item can be repaired We will, if liable under this Policy, pay all expenses necessarily incurred to restore the Damaged item described in the Schedule to its former state of serviceability, including freight charges, penalty rates and government charges, to the extent that such expenses have been included in the Sum Insured.

No deduction will be made for depreciation in respect of parts replaced.

All Damage which can be repaired will be repaired, however should the total cost exceed:

- (i) The Sum Insured detailed in the Schedule;
- or
- (ii)
 - (a) For items less than six (6) years old; the cost of replacement of the Insured item by an item of similar function, type, capacity and quality and in a condition equal to, but not better than, the condition of the Insured item when new; or,
 - (b) For items six (6) years or older; the cost of replacement as stated in (a) above less depreciation of ten percent (10%) of the cost of Replacement for each year of service (or part thereof) in excess of Six (6) years up to a maximum depreciation of seventy percent (70%);

then the maximum liability under this Section will be the lesser of (i) or (ii).

Maintenance Agreement for Section 1

Where the insured equipment is subject to a maintenance agreement this Policy will cover such equipment only if You have fulfilled Your obligations under the agreement.

Where the insured equipment is not subject to a maintenance agreement this Policy will cover such equipment only if You have complied with the manufacturer's recommendations for preventative maintenance.

 - (k) from atmospheric moisture or temperature;
 - (l) from loss, Damage or destruction of any kind to an Insured Item whilst such item is on hire, rental lease or loan to a party other than You.

Special Notice Re: Terrorism Insurance Act

We have determined that this Policy (or part of it) is a Policy to which the Terrorism Insurance Act 2003 applies. We have reinsured Our liability under the Act with the Commonwealth Government reinsurer, the Australian Reinsurance Pool Corporation (ARPC).

As a consequence, We are required to pay a premium to ARPC and that amount (together with the cost of that part of the cover provided by Us and administrative costs associated with the legislation) is reflected in the premium charged to You. As with any other part of Our premium, it is subject to Government taxes and charges such as GST, stamp duty and where applicable, fire service levy.

Provided We will not be bound to replace or reinstate any property exactly or completely, but only as circumstances permit and in a reasonably sufficient manner and will not in any case be bound to expend in respect of any one of the items insured more than the Sum Insured thereon.
4. If any claim covered by the Policy is also covered in whole or in part by any other insurance, Our liability will be limited to its rateable proportion of such claim.
5. We will be entitled if We so desire to prosecute in Your name for Our own benefit any claim for indemnity and will have full discretion in the conduct of any proceedings and You will give all such information and assistance as We may require.

 - (a) You have used any right under the Policy (eg. a claim has been made) or Your rights have ended (eg. the Period of Insurance has finished); or
 - (b) if it covers an event that will start and end within the 30 day period (eg. a trip overseas or loading a transportation vehicle) and the event has started.If You exercise Your cooling-off right, We will refund any money that You have paid to Us but We may deduct a pro rata proportion of the premium for time on risk, reasonable administrative costs related to the acquisition and termination of the Policy and any government taxes or duties We cannot recover.

 - (c) If You or We cancel the Policy We may deduct a pro rata proportion of the premium for time on risk, reasonable administrative costs related to the acquisition and termination of the Policy and any government taxes or duties We cannot recover.

Other Information

Renewal procedure

Before this Policy expires We will normally offer renewal by sending a renewal invitation to You advising the amount payable to renew this Policy. It is important that You check the information shown before renewing each year to satisfy Yourself that the details are correct.

Your Duty of Disclosure

You have a duty to tell Us before the Policy is entered into, every matter known to You which:

- You know; or
- a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to Our decision whether to insure You and whether any special conditions need to apply to Your Policy.

This duty applies when You renew, extend, vary or reinstate the Policy.

What don't You need to tell Us?

You do not need to tell Us about any matter:

- that diminishes Our risk;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that We know or should know as an insurer; or
- that We tell You We do not need to know.

Who must tell Us?

Everyone who is insured under the Policy must comply with this duty.

What happens if You (or they) don't tell Us?

If You (or they) don't comply, We may cancel the Policy or reduce the amount We pay if You make a claim – perhaps to zero. If fraud is involved, We may treat the Policy as if it never existed, and pay nothing.

Privacy Act 1988

The Privacy Act 1988 contains National Privacy Principles which require Us to tell You that as an insurer We collect, handle, store and disclose Your personal and sensitive information in order to:

- decide whether to issue a Policy,
- determine the terms and conditions of Your Policy,
- compile data, and
- handle claims.

Sensitive information includes, amongst other things, information about an individual's health, membership of professional associations and criminal records. You have given Us Your consent to collect Your personal and sensitive information in order to issue You with this Policy.

We disclose personal information to third parties with whom We deal to provide the relevant services and products. For example, in handling claims, We may have to disclose Your personal and other information to third parties such as other insurers, reinsurers, loss adjusters, external claims data collectors, investigators and agents or other parties as required by law. We limit the use and disclosure of any personal information provided by Us to them to the specific purpose for which We supplied it. You have the right to seek access to Your personal and sensitive information and to correct it at any time.

St. George Underwriting Agency aims to ensure that Your personal information is accurate, up-to-date and complete. Please contact Us on (08) 9317 8400 if You would like to seek access to, or revise Your personal information or feel that the information We currently have on record is incorrect or incomplete or believe that the privacy of Your personal information at St. George Underwriting Agency has been interfered with. Dispute resolution process – helping You solve any problems

Complaints or disputes are not an everyday occurrence. We strive to do things the right way and keep Our customers satisfied. Sometimes though, complaints or disputes do occur and when this happens, Our objective is to resolve any disagreement as amicably and as quickly as possible. We believe the best way to achieve this is to provide You with an opportunity for an unbiased review of the issue.

Here's what to do if a complaint or dispute arises

Regardless of whether the complaint or dispute involves Our staff, an agent, loss adjuster, assessor, investigator or the service We provide, simply contact Us using the details on the front cover and provide Our customer service officer with the details of the issue concerning You. They will attempt to resolve the complaint or dispute, if they are unable to do so they will log it and refer it to the appropriate senior officer for resolution.

Within Our organisation We have established a complaints and disputes resolution process. This is a free service. It is a system designed to log, track, expedite and monitor complaints received from clients and customers about Our services and products. A staff member involved in the complaints and disputes resolution process will write to You within 15 working days advising the outcome of the review and reasons for their decision. We do not consider a complaint or dispute to be resolved until a proposed resolution or solution has been communicated to You and You have accepted the resolution or solution.

If You are not satisfied with the outcome of this process

If We are unable to resolve the complaint or dispute We will offer You the option of referring the matter to the insurance industry's external independent complaints scheme subject to eligibility. The scheme will only review complaints or disputes if they have gone through Our internal complaints and disputes resolution process.

If this insurance has been issued through an insurance intermediary

If Your Policy has been issued through Our agent then they are acting as Our agent and not as Your agent.

If Your Policy has been issued through a broker then the broker is acting as Your agent.

Where this Policy has been arranged through an intermediary a commission is payable by Us to them for arranging the insurance. This commission is paid to the intermediary from the commission We receive from Allianz Australia Insurance Ltd.
